Christians Together in Fareham (CTiF)

The CTiF Holiday Club went brilliantly with sixty children attending for a week of teaching, sharing, witness and fun. Based on a theme of Unlikely Heroes from the Bible, the teaching covered the stories of Noah, the Centurion's servant, Gideon, Miriam (Moses' sister) and the boy with five loaves and 2 fishes. The children experienced cooking, music, science and games as well as lots of crafts under the leadership of a large team of helpers gathered from many churches. Every day began and finished with very enthusiastic singing and lots of actions to songs such as:

"I believe in Jesus" www.youtube.com/watch?v=HOJ0iRiqQOM

and "God Loves Me" www.youtube.com/watch?v=-lFSTnFMN0g

The photo shows the helpers present after the final session – see if you can recognise Jules, Alison, Donna and Sue H. Sally D was not available that day so unfortunately missed the picture.

CTiF events to note for the coming months – further details near the time:

CTiF meeting – 15th September, 7:30pm at St John's, Upper St Michael's Grove

Christian Aid Quiz – 14th November

Christingle Making in town – 21st November

COLLECT Lord God,
defend your Church from all false teaching and give to your people knowledge of your truth, that we may enjoy eternal life
in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayers for strength and healing:
Michele, Robert, Doreen and Joan.

Prayers for those who have recently died and their families and friends:
Kathleen Walls.
